Student Agreement

By checking this box and signing the form below, I certify that:

- This is the final version of my Master's thesis, approved by my advisory committee.
- Sonoma State University is granted the non-exclusive right to archive, reproduce, and make accessible worldwide my Master's thesis in its entirety, without further authorization from me. I understand that I retain all ownership rights, along with co-authors and funding agencies, if any.
- I retain the right to use my Master's thesis in future works (such as articles or books). It is understood that any copying or publication of this thesis for financial gain shall not be allowed without my further written permission and that any user may be liable for copyright infringement. I require proper acknowledgement of authorship in all instances of reproduction.
- If applicable, I have received unrestricted permissions from co-authors, funding agencies, and creators of third party materials found within my thesis; and that such third-party materials are clearly identified and acknowledged within my work.
